

ENSIGN BYRD MARRIES MISS AMES, OF BOSTON

Brilliant Ceremony at Christ Church, Winchester, Witnessed by Fashionable Gathering.

USHERS IN NAVAL UNIFORM

Bride Enters Chancel Under Drawn Swords Held by Groomsmen, Forming Archway to the Altar. Many Affairs on Social Calendar.

Christ Church at Winchester was the scene of a brilliant wedding last evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Marie Donahoe Ames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blanchard Ames, of Boston, became the bride of Ensign Richard Evelyn Byrd, Jr., United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Richmond and Winchester. The church was thronged with a large company of distinguished guests, and the ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. William D. Smith, D. D. Easter lilies and bride roses, with tall, lighted candles, were used on the altar and the chancel was massed with palms, ferns and lilies.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away, and they were met at the chancel steps by the groom and his brother, Harry F. Byrd, who was best man. The wedding dress was of ivory satin and tulle embroidered in seed pearls, and the long court train was fashioned of silver brocade. The bride wore her veil of illusion in the old-fashioned way over her face, and it was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms. She wore no ornaments and her flowers were lilies of the valley. Mrs. George Lafayette Washington, of New Jersey, attended her sister as dame of honor. She wore a simple gown of very pale blue satin and tulle, and carried an armful of deep pink roses. The ushers were Lieutenants B. H. Green, Lieutenant A. A. Corwin, Lieutenant J. R. Barry, Paymaster C. C. Copp, Paymaster E. C. Guder, Ensign W. S. Davidson, Ensign A. R. Simpson and Ensign Harold Dodd. The groom and his groomsmen were in full dress uniform of the Navy, and the bride entered the chancel under their drawn swords, forming an archway to the altar.

A reception, followed by dancing, was held at the country home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony at the church. The house everywhere was decorated in lilies and roses and with a great deal of handsome and entertaining was done this week in Winchester in honor of the bride and party and the guests from a distance.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Flood, of Washington; Miss Hildegarde Porter, of Washington; Mrs. A. M. Ketcher, of New York; Mrs. Charles J. Faulkner, of New York; Mrs. W. McSherry and Messrs. Allen Emmert and Alexander Parks, of Martinsburg; Mrs. Milton Hope, of Hampton; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Montague, of Richmond; Mrs. Rhett Miller, of Baltimore; Jack Harold, of Westover; Thomas Holling Byrd, of Richmond; and Mr. Le Pevre, of the Panama Legation, Washington.

Among the guests of interest, Mrs. William H. Hoffnagle was hostess at an informal reception party at her residence, 1229 West Avenue, yesterday afternoon. There were four tables playing and a number of extra guests were invited in later in the afternoon. The rooms were decorated in vases of pink and white flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gordon, of 1601 Floyd Avenue, are giving a small party at their home this evening in honor of their brother, Lieutenant Augustus Warner Robins, United States Army, and Mrs. Robins, who have recently returned from their honeymoon. The younger married set have been included in the invitation.

Miss Carter Ingram will be guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Gordon Wallace at her home, "Ellerslie," on the Cary Street road, to-day. A number of the debutantes have been invited to attend.

Miss Mary B. Baughman will be hostess at the third of a series of teas this afternoon, the affair to be given at her apartment in the Chestnut.

Mrs. A. W. Alsworth, of Portsmouth, gave a tea Tuesday afternoon at her residence in honor of Miss Lella Cottrell, of Richmond, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Collins, in that place.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Rosa Faulconer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Faulconer, to Dr. Joseph H. Dunford, of Portsmouth, was celebrated yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 506 North Meadow Street, with Rev. Carter Jenkins, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating. The ceremony took place in the drawing-room, which was banked in pink and white flowers, against a background of Southern smilax and ferns, and a lattice work of pink roses and asparagus ferns, with pink candles on flower-decked pedestals, formed an improvised altar at one end of the room. The bride wore a smart going-away gown of blue chiffon cloth, with a hat to match and a corsage bouquet of orchids. Her only ornament was the brooch worn by her mother at her wedding.

After a wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Dunford will make their home in Pennsboro, N. J. Large Charity Function. The German Ladies' Aid Association will give a large tea from 2 to 7 o'clock this afternoon in the residence of Mrs. C. F. Sauer, 2315 West Grace Street. This is to be a brilliant affair, and the house will be beautifully decorated for the occasion. A great deal of good has been accomplished by this organization for the poor of Richmond, both during Christmas and at other times.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Irvine McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Clara Irvine McDonald, of Baltimore, to Edward Jackson Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus O'Donnell Lee of the same city, took place quietly at noon Saturday at St. Ignatius' Catholic Church. Rev. Thomas J. Delahant officiating, in the presence of members of the family.

There were no attendants. The bride-elect wore a handsome suit of tan cloth, with a large black hat and a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left on a wedding journey and will be "at home" after February 1 at the Cardonia, on North Charles Street, in Baltimore.

The bride is well known here. She is a beautiful young woman and is related to many old Virginia families, her grandfather having been the late Carter Irvine.

SKETCHES FROM LIFE -By Temple

"Ice!"

Petersburg, presided at the punch bowl. Dr. and Mrs. Dunford left later in the evening for a wedding journey to Montreal and New York, and upon their return will make their home in New York.

Presentation to Bride. Miss Florence Gerson, whose marriage to Benjamin Hyman Cohen, of Newport News, took place in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, received a delightful surprise when the Herzl Zionist Club of this city, presented her with a Menorah candlestick, in recognition of her valuable services as a member of the club.

The Zionist national hymn, "Hatikvah," ("The Hope"), played by a screened orchestra. Miss Selma Sonnenberg, secretary of the club, followed by its members, marched up to the bride and made a presentation speech. Mrs. Cohen, in a gracious response, expressed her gratitude and accepted the club's gift.

Among those from a distance who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nachman, Mr. and Mrs. I. Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ketcher, Mr. and Mrs. D. Berlin, Mrs. M. Binder, Misses Leah Peltz, Ida Oser, Bertha Fisch, Annie Nachman, Fanny Binder and Rena Nachman, Sol Nachman and I. Cohen, of Newport News; Mrs. Milton Noek and son, Julian, of Norfolk, and Louis Kantrowitz, of Hampton. After a bridal trip Mr. and Mrs. Cohen will make their home in Newport News, where the groom is engaged in business.

Home Wedding. A pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride, 1815 Virginia Avenue, Highland Park, when Miss Mary Waller Gregory, daughter of Mrs. Irene Gregory and the late William Gregory, was married to Dr. Francis Beattie Hutton, son of Judge Beattie Hutton, of Joseph W. Morris performed the ceremony. The parlors were decorated in pink flowers, palms and burning tapers. Little Miss Mary Gregory Robertson, niece of the bride, wearing a hand-embroidered dress with pink ribbons, carried the ring in a lily, and Deacon Gregory gave his sister away. It was a tableau marriage, and the bride party assembled in the drawing-room for the ceremony. The bride wore a smart going-away gown of blue chiffon cloth, with a hat to match and a corsage bouquet of orchids. Her only ornament was the brooch worn by her mother at her wedding.

After a wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Hutton will make their home in Pennsboro, N. J. Large Charity Function. The German Ladies' Aid Association will give a large tea from 2 to 7 o'clock this afternoon in the residence of Mrs. C. F. Sauer, 2315 West Grace Street. This is to be a brilliant affair, and the house will be beautifully decorated for the occasion. A great deal of good has been accomplished by this organization for the poor of Richmond, both during Christmas and at other times.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Irvine McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Clara Irvine McDonald, of Baltimore, to Edward Jackson Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus O'Donnell Lee of the same city, took place quietly at noon Saturday at St. Ignatius' Catholic Church. Rev. Thomas J. Delahant officiating, in the presence of members of the family. There were no attendants. The bride-elect wore a handsome suit of tan cloth, with a large black hat and a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left on a wedding journey and will be "at home" after February 1 at the Cardonia, on North Charles Street, in Baltimore.

The bride is well known here. She is a beautiful young woman and is related to many old Virginia families, her grandfather having been the late Carter Irvine.

There will be a musical social Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. S. Jones, 1241 Porter Street, by Miss Ella Mayo and Mrs. C. S. Jones, for the benefit of Meade Memorial Church. A splendid program has been provided and the public is cordially invited.

Among the people from Richmond noted in New York during the past week have been Lawrence P. Bedford, E. A. Young, W. Dickie, Rich. H. Smith, Frank M. Davis, V. H. Borst, P. McIlwaine, Miss Emma T. Thompson, Leroy S. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Estes, C. B. Snow and John L. Ratcliffe.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN. Mrs. Robert David Eaglesfield and her

JUDGE WILLIAM F. RHEA WEDS MRS. ROSA TURPIN

Marriage at Home of Bride, Near Charlottesville, Surprises Closest Friends.

HAS HAD LONG PUBLIC CAREER

Serving Now as Member of Corporation Commission for Second Term. Bride Is Widow of Former Pastor of Charlottesville Baptist Church.

Judge William F. Rhea, of the State Corporation Commission, and Mrs. Rosa Turpin, widow of Rev. John B. Turpin, D. D., former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlottesville, were married at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning at "Shadwell," the bride's home, about five miles east of Charlottesville.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, Richmond, assisted by Rev. Cecil V. Wood, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlottesville. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sallie W. Smith, while the groom had for his best man Rev. J. J. Scherer, Jr., of the First English Evangelical Church, Richmond, who substituted for his brother, Luther L. Scherer, who was prevented by illness from acting in that capacity. She was given in marriage by her brother, Edward M. Smith.

LITTLE GRANDCHILD. The flower girl was little Miss Mary Goodykoontz, of Bristol, while young William Rhea Blake served as ring bearer. The young people are grandchildren of Judge Rhea.

The bride wore a blue cloth tailored suit, with a blue velvet hat to match and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a handsome gown of meteor, trimmed with lace and crystals, and carried white carnations and lilies of the valley. The bride carried an exquisitely simple dress of white net and lace and carried a basket of sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony Judge Rhea and Mrs. Rhea left on a bridal trip to New York.

MARRIAGE SURPRISES. FRIENDS IN CITY

Judge Rhea, although a citizen of a distant part of the State, has made his home in Richmond for a number of years. As a member of the State Corporation Commission, and earlier in life as a member of the State Senate, the United States House of Representatives, and judge of the Corporation Court of Bristol, he is recognized as one of the foremost public men in Virginia. News of his marriage came as a surprise to most of his friends in this city.

Judge Rhea began his public career with his election as judge of the County Court of Washington County at the age of twenty-two. After four years of service in this court he resigned to accept nomination for the State Senate, to which he was elected, and in which he served four years.

SERVED AS CONGRESSMAN. FROM NINTH DISTRICT

Subsequently Judge Rhea served five years as judge of the Corporation Court of Bristol and four years as Congressman from the Ninth District. His nine years on the bench he reversed only once by the Supreme Court of Appeals. He has been a member of the Virginia-West Virginia Debt Commission for twenty-one years, having been appointed to that body by former Governor Charles T. O'Ferrall.

In January, 1908, he was appointed by Governor Swanson a member of the State Corporation Commission, and served for six years. In January, 1914, he was reappointed by Governor Mann for a period of six years, from February 1, 1914.

BRIDE IS WIDOW. OF BAPTIST MINISTER

The bride is a daughter of the late

Renting an Underwood Typewriter a sound investment, certain to increase your income. "The Machine You Will Eventually Buy." 1212 East Main Street.—Adv.

NEW HOME MODELS OF PERFECTION.

PERFECTLY SIMPLE SIMPLY PERFECT.

We are agents for the above well known machine.

Have One Placed in Your Home

and pay us so much each week or month.

Rothert & Co. Fourth and Broad Streets.

THALHINDER'S BROAD AND FIFTH STS.

Special Reduction Sale of All Knit Underwear for Women and Children

50 Fine Ribbed Vests, Pants and Union Suits, including extra sizes, 37c
25c and 29c Ribbed Vests and Pants, 10c.
100 Fine Ribbed Vests, Pants and Union Suits, 85c.
150 Ribbed Vests, Pants and Union Suits, $1.05.
Children's 25c Vests, Pants and Union Suits, 2 to 14-year sizes, 18c.
Children's 50c Vests, Pants and Union Suits, 2 to 14-year sizes, 37c.

Tragle's Big 18th Anniversary Sale---of Drugs, Medicines and Toilet Goods

Now On In Full Blast

Tragle Drug Co. 817 E. Broad Street.

M. Massie Smith and Nellie Timberlake Smith, of Charlottesville, Va. She is descended from a long line of distinguished, English, Scotch and Irish ancestors, including the Magruides, Roders, Browns, Breckinridges, Marshalls, Dabneys, Jennings and Crawfords. Among her near ancestors were many men of distinction in war and peace, who left their impress upon the history of Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and Texas, in all of which States Mrs. Rhea has many near relatives. She is the widow of Rev. John B. Turpin, D. D., who was a distinguished divine in the Southern Baptist Church, and was for many years pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlottesville. He had charges also at different times in the States of Missouri, West Virginia and Georgia, and was greatly beloved by all who knew him.

Mrs. Rhea from her childhood up has been a great church worker. She has been an active member of many organizations, such as the Clan McGregor, Daughters of the American Revolution, United Daughters of the Confederacy and Colonial Dames.

Fulton-Fishburn. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 20.—The marriage of James Kyle Fulton, of Washington, D. C., to Miss Sallie Clark Fishburn, was solemnized this morning at 11 o'clock at the Greene Memorial Church, Rev. J. R. Winn officiating. The wedding was one of the widespread interest on account of the large connection of the bride's family. She is the daughter of the late R. H. and Emma Phillips Fishburn. The marriage was a quiet affair on account of the family being in mourning.

Mr. Fulton is a prominent lawyer of Washington.

ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD FILES BUDGET ACCOUNT

Asks $2,450,217.70 for Operation of City Departments Under Its Control During This Year.

The Administrative Board has filed with the Council Finance Committee the following itemized statement of the requirements of the various departments under its control for the coming year for consideration in connection with the forthcoming annual budget. Administrative Board expenses, $2,000; stationery and printing, $1,000; building department, $1,700; first regiment armory (janitors, supplies, repairs and extra labor), $1,000; elevator and improvements to Council chamber (balance brought forward), $2,575; electrical inspection payroll, including City Electrician, $7,500; expenses, $4,887.50; care of lunatics (including unpaid bills of 1914), $2,000; funeral examiners, $150; license tins and medals, $750; street cleaning pay roll, including crematory and incinerator and fifty additional men, $118,212.50; street cleaning expenses, $65,000; sewers generally—maintenance and house connections, $30,000; survey of annexed territory, $55,000; Engineer's Department pay roll, $33,952; streets generally—expenses and improvements, $500,000; bridges, $2,500; opening Fifteenth Street beneath Broad, $50,000; James River Improvement, pay roll including dockmaster, $13,020; penses and improvements around wharf, dredging and dock repairs, improvement around City Wharf and removal of rock in harbor, $25,000; charities—City Home expenses and repair, $34,200; City Home pay roll and poor of city pay roll, $16,900; poor of city and mission coal, $19,000; Virginia Hospital expenses and unpaid bills, $19,875; Virginia Hospital pay roll, $22,776; grounds and parks expenses, including nursery, $50,000; pay roll, $30,000; purchase of property Riverside Drive, $5,000; playgrounds, $13,070; Riverside and preliminary work, $10,000; repairs to and maintenance of public ket expenses, $3,500; market pay roll, $6,818; market salary and expenses, $69,882; total, $2,450,217.70.

Brick Tosses Dismissed. Lizzie Muse, colored, who is alleged to have struck Della Polk, also colored, with a brick, was dismissed by Justice Maurice yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II.

Notaries Commissioned. Commissions to notaries public were signed yesterday by Governor Stuart as follows: Mrs. M. J. De Haan, Public County; J. M. Mitchell, Roanoke; J. E. Turner, Accomac County.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

Two Hundred $2.00 and $3.00 LINGERIE WAIST BARGAINS

IN a little while warm days will be here and Lingerie Waists will go with a rush. But you'll find no bargains such as these. An A-1 New York manufacturer has shipped them to us without warning, because he knows we are always eager for real bargains. Are you?

These are the prettiest, crispest, most girlish, most stylish waists imaginable.

For instance, these new "Chin-chin" collar effects upstanding at the back and cutaway to a V in front, are shown mostly in higher priced blouses. The long set-in sleeves with cuffs of lace, the bands of embroidery alternating with shadow lace, or sand colored Venice lace. Every feature is utilized with distinction and charm.

WE CONSIDER THE OFFERING MOST OPPORTUNE AND ASSUREDLY UNUSUAL BARGAIN VALUES AT $1.49.

SPECIALISTS IN STYLES

Eye Glasses AND Spectacles

Made in our own workshops of the best materials and finest quality lenses, adjusted to suit each individual case by skilled experts. We fill oculists' prescriptions correctly, and keep your glasses adjusted at all times.

Skilled service—courteous attention. THE BEST of everything optical.

G. L. Hall Optical Co. "Eyeglass and Kodak Experts" 211 East Broad St.

"When you're tired there's nothing like a cup of good hot tea to cheer and refresh you"

Ridgways Tea (SAFE TEA FIRST)

A Well Written Letter Commands Consideration!

Be brief, say what you have to say clearly and concisely, and exercise the same discriminating care in selecting the stationery you write it on as you do in the perusal of what you are to receive. To be sure of best impressions use

"VIRSTACO" Engraved Stationery,

the clean, clear-cut engraving or die stamping, the rich, distinctive appearance of ultra-quality, makes every recipient "sit up and take notice" of what you say—and that's the secret of success in expanding your "mail sales."

SAMPLES ON REQUEST

and sketches of original designs for your business gladly submitted without obligating you in any way.

Virginia Stationery Co., Inc. Engravers to Those who Know, 615 E. MAIN STREET.

J. B. Mosby & Co. New Wash Goods and White Goods at special prices.

No alarm clocks or frequent calls to dress and hurry to the table when there is beckoning to you—

ALAGA SYRUP

It appeals to little folks and grown ups alike. ALAGA for breakfast puts a smile on the face, a glow on the cheek and a zest to the appetite. It satisfies.

Sold in sealed tins by your grocer

ALABAMA-GEORGIA SYRUP CO. D MONTGOMERY, ALA.